

Cruise Craft Executive 700

Words & Pics By Peter Webster, camera boat skippered by Ruth Cunningham

In terms of symbolism, more than anything else, this stylish, new euro-look sports cruiser from Cruise Craft signifies a generational change in this 50-year-old boat building company. Few boat builders in Australia have the history, the heritage, much less the experience of the Nichols family, and it shows in just about every aspect of this outstanding new cruiser. Last month, editor Peter Webster & Ruth Cunningham spent several hours with Justin and Nathan Nichols as they put the new cruiser under the F&B microscope.
