

Whitsunday Dreaming...

Words & location pics by Peter Webster. Additional regional pics (as marked) kindly supplied by Tourism Queensland, with special F&B info and research by David Colfelt.

For most Australian boatowners, fishing, diving, crabbing and cruising through Queensland's 74 Whitsunday islands remains an enduring, iconic desire. Last month, F&B's Peter Webster and Ruth Cunningham completed their first visit to the Whitsundays for many years, and although the weather was not kind (!) to them, they were hugely impressed by the area - and recognised its astonishing potential for boats of all shapes and sizes.