

The Cooktown FNQ Experience

Story & Pics By Warren & Barbara Wendt

By southern standards, Cooktown is surrounded by reefy, structured waterways and fishing grounds - and is an excellent venue for small craft wanting to explore some genuine GBR action.

On most tides, the main town launch ramp is pretty good (if a bit narrow) even for big craft. Parking can be a problem on busy weekends.

