

Happy Days On The Glenelg River, VIC

There is something intrinsically peaceful about still water fishing and cruising, but here, in far western coastal Victoria, almost on the SA border, the pace, the atmosphere and the river all seem to combine to remove the hustle and bustle from contemporary life. After a hectic period in Adelaide, F&B contributors Di Ross and John Batty found the Glenelg's many charms just the tonic they needed . . . .

John Batty's colourful pic of the Boat & Canoe Hire at Nelson. This was the original Kiosk built in 1935