

They're off on their travels again - this time, our two fav F&B contributors Di Ross and photographer John Batty, are catching the ferry across from Adelaide, down the SA Gulfs to Kangaroo Island. In this special Two Part report, they will show you why KI is becoming one of Australia's most popular fishing and boating holiday centres, and explain how you can follow in their footsteps for that special holiday 'getaway' you've been promising yourself for . . . how long ?

Right: JB loads our rig onto Spirit of Kangaroo Island at Cape Jervis with guidance from SeaLink crew.

Below: Trevor and Brian at the helm of Spirit of KI,

Centre: "Spirit of Kangaroo Island" approaching Cape Jervis with "Sealion 2000" departing for KI

Far Right: All tucked away onboard with a few lamb roasts directly behind us.

Part 1 of 2

Bound For . . . Kangaroo Island, SA

Research & Report by Di Ross, Photography by John Batty

