

F&B's man in Tassy, and author of this excellent report, Mike Fry with a hefty Gordon River brown trout – what a fisherman! (Well, that's what it said on his caption sheet - Ed)

Brendon Morrison from Strahan and Joe Fagan from Waratah showing off their catch.

Mike Fry puts up a very strong case explaining why Strahan, on the West coast of Tasmania, should be on top of every mainland family's list for their next annual holidays - and why F&B readers in particular, will love this holiday destination.
